

Turn Questions into Reflections

1. I thought we made some progress, why did you turn around use before an important meeting about your son?

2. What makes you think it will never get better?

3. Are you worried about people knowing about your mental health issues?

4. Is this something you are willing to try?

5. Don't you get tired of the stress he is putting on you and your children?

6. How do you not understand that using substances is not good for you?

7. Do you understand that if you keep lying, it's hard for people to trust you?

8. Can you understand that we have some limits on the resources and services we provide?

9. Don't you want to figure a way to help your daughter?

10. What is it going to take to motivate you to work on these things?
